Huntington Woods, Mich.---September 28, 2009 --- Hennessey Capital LLC, a Michigan-based specialty finance company providing working capital to small and mid-sized businesses, announces it has been named Automation Alley Member of the Year.

Automation Alley is a non-profit organization of 1000 member companies that drives growth and economic development in Southeast Michigan through a collaborative culture focusing on workforce and business development initiatives. It attracts the creators and consumers of diverse technologies from a variety of industries around the world. The Automation Alley region is home to more than 311,000 technology workers and 7,800 technology businesses. It encompasses Genesee County, Livingston County, Macomb County, Monroe County, Oakland County, St. Clair County, Washtenaw County, Wayne County and the City of Detroit.

Hennessey Capital has been involved with Automation Alley since 2004, and has served the organization through active participation in the finance and marketing committees, as speakers and panelists at Automation Alley events, and as financial sponsors of various programs and presentations.

"Our firm believes in the mission and vision of the Alley and thus has committed considerable resources to helping the organization and its members grow," says Hennessey Capital President Mike Semanco. "We are pleased to be recognized for our contributions to Automation Alley and look forward to continuing involvement with this vital regional business and technology hub."
