Huntington Woods, Mich.---September 28, 2009 --- Hennessey Capital LLC, a Michigan-based specialty finance company providing working capital to small and mid-sized businesses, announces it has become a corporate partner in the Macomb-OU INCubator. The Macomb-OU INCubator is a business support program for entrepreneurial start-up companies and is managed by a partnership between the City of Sterling Heights, Macomb County and Oakland University, along with assistance from the Michigan Economic Development Corporation. Its overarching goal is to help bring industry diversification within the tri-county area by producing successful, financially viable firms.

Hennessey Capital President Mike Semanco says its support of the Macomb-OU INCubator is reflective of the company's commitment to growing small businesses in the region.

“Hennessey Capital is dedicated to helping entrepreneurs gain access to capital. Initiatives like the Macomb-OU INCubator share our desire to grow the region's entrepreneurial business base to strengthen Michigan's economic future and support innovation in a variety of industries,” affirms Mr. Semanco.

Hennessey Capital's support of the Macomb-OU INCubator includes serving on the INCubator's Investment Review Board (IRB), a panel that determines funding allotments to INCubator candidates, and as a member of the various INCubator Kitchen Cabinets. The Kitchen Cabinets are advisory boards that work directly with individual INCubator companies to foster growth by providing hands on business expertise and coaching.

About the Macomb-OU INCubator

Started in October 2008, the Macomb-OU INCubator is a business support program that accelerates the successful development of start-up companies by providing entrepreneurs with an array of targeted business resources and services.
